SRI CHAMARAJENDRA SANSKRIT COLLEGE, BANGALORE.

With a view to promote Sanskrit Education in the State among all classes and communities, the following facilities are afforded in the Sri Chamarajendra Sanskrit College, Bangalore.

(1) Necessary provision has been made in the College for imparting free instruction to pupils from the Sanskrit Elementary Course up to the Vidwat Uttama Final Course in the three branches of study, viz., Sahitya, (Literature) Vyakarana (Grammar) and Tarka (Logic). As many as 98 scholarships are awarded each year to deserving students, covering the entire course of instruction, at rates ranging from Re. 1 to Rs. 12 per month. Prizes in the form of books are annually given to successful students. Candidates are admitted free to all grades of the Sanskrit Public Examinations. The courses of study provided in the College lead to the following Public Examinations :—

(1) the Prathama or the Primary,
(2) the Kavya,
(3) the Champu Nataka,
(4) the Vidwat Intermedidate, and
(5) the Vidwat Final Examinations.

Those who pass the First three Examinations will be given certificates and those who pass the last two Examinations (the Vidwat Intermediate and the Vidwat Final) will also be given money prizes, ranging from Rs. 50 to 150 according to the Examination they pass and the class and distinction they obtain. Further, a few special prizes are awarded from endowments received from gentlemen interested in Sanskrit Education.

Free lodging is available to moffusil students.

(2) Some of the special features of the courses provided in this College in addition to the study of Sanskrit are that subjects of practical importance are taught—

(a) In the primary Course which is one of the three years, not only Sanskrit, but also Kannada and General subjects like History, Geography and Arithmetic up to the Middle School standard are taught.
(b) English is taught from the Middle First Year class up to the S.S.L.C. standard in the Secondary School Course which is one of six years.
(c) History of Sanskrit Language and Literature and works of Oriental Scholars bearing on the different branches of study are taught in addition to special subjects of Sanskrit study during the five years of the Collegiate Course. Thus, students who pass out of this College will not only be Sanskrit Vidwans of the old type but will also be scholars with a modern outlook.

(3) The courses provided in this College have further been, as far as possible, co-ordinated with the General High School Courses. Students who after passing the Kannada Lower Secondary (Upper Primary) Examination, pass the Kavya Examination and obtain 40 per cent or more marks in English, are allowed the privilege of joining the IV Form of a High School, if they so desire. Candidates who pass the Middle School Examination within a period of two years before appearing for the Kavya Examination, will be exempted from passing the English Group of the Kavya Examination.

(4) Students who pass the S.S.L.C. or higher Examination with Sanskrit as Second Language or as an additional subject, will be exempted from passing the English Group of the Champu Nataka Examination and from passing the Kavya Examination also, for purposes of admission to the Champu Nataka Course.

(5) Candidates who pass the Champu Nataka Examination in full will be permitted to take the English Group only of the S.S.L.C. Examination on payment of an examination fee of Rs. 3. Candidates who wish to appear for the English Group only of the S.S.L.C. after passing the Vidwat Examination, are permitted to attend the English Classes of the VI Form of a High School without payment of School fees.

(6) A strong and distinguished Committee of manegament with Sir K. P. Puttanna Chetty, C.I.E., LL.D., as its Chairman, has been constituted by Government to take necessary steps to encourage pupils from the backward communities to join the Sri Chamarajendra Sanskrit College, Bangalore, and avail themselves of all the facilities provided by it for advancing Sanskrit Education generally in the State.

E. G. MCALPINE,
Director.
